Dear Friends,

For over thirty years, it has been difficult to convey the impact of our ministry to the body of Christ. Asking for donations would be a whole lot easier if what we do was self-explanatory. What do we tell people once we say we're missionaries to the body of Christ and we provide free resources to help believers become all they can be in Him? That just isn't enough information for you to really understand why you might want to prayerfully consider supporting us.

So, let's start with this. We believe we've been called for such a time as this, a time when what used to work in a person's walk with the Lord is no longer sufficient to navigate today's world as God's ambassadors. The world is running out of answers, and many believers are coming to the realization that they need a much closer relationship with the Lord to navigate and overcome the heavy challenges at their doorstep and then help others do the same. We have built resources that help believers move in that direction, so they can glorify God, come to truly know Him, and fulfill His plans for their lives. As we look at what's happening in today's world, we're confident that the content of our resources is more relevant and beneficial now than ever before.

At this time, we're in need of prayer support and financial help. Because there is such a growing need, it is important that we expand and amplify what we already have in place whether it's our publications, our daily lifeline, the MASH mornings radio program, or 24/7 online radio station. We are also developing an interactive bible study broadcast on Praydio.com about the overcoming life the Lord has won for us.

We ask you to visit our website, www.tfrc.info to see and hear for yourself what we have available to help build up the body of Christ in these challenging times. With your assistance, we can continue to make God known and help in restoring men, marriages, and families. Thank you for considering our request!

Lord bless you with His presence,
Jim and Merry Corbett
